Approaching Marriage.

Joseph Chamberlain, M. P., the Birmingham manufacturer, who one day hopes to be in the Miss Endicott is truly of a sufficiently high that cannot be excelled. Her father is a lineal

Mrs. George Dexter, of Longwood, Mass., and a few others.

Miss Endicott will be married in a travelling dress of gray ladies' cloth, which will be neatly, but plainly trimmed with braid. She will wear a gray bonnet trimmed with gray ribbon and gray wings.

and a diamond ring.

Her father has given her a diamond crescent.

All of her relatives and friends in Salem are very much pleased with the forthcoming marriage.

FUN FOR AFTER DINNER.

[From Time.]

Shall I order the Sunday dinner ?

Those Dreadful Camblers.

(From the Boston Courier.)
Wife (handing husband morning papers)—I see that several gambling dens were raided upon by

by the Pemberton Square authorities last evening and a large quantity of gambling materials captured.

Husband (warmly)—I am glad of it. The police should wipe out those places at once. These gram-biers are a very hard class—Hullo! I'm in luck. Those stocks have gone up, and I come out three thousand ahead by yesterday's transactions. Good spec., my dear; you shall have that bonnet you asked for.

Imperative.

Unpalatable.

cakes for your breakfast.

Tom and Harry—The discussion on wool has destroyed our taste for anything made of it.

The Funeral of Mrs. Hoyt.

family residence, 51 West Forty-eighth street, tomorrow afternoon. Miss Hoyt returned to her home last night, having come on with the body of her attorney, E. C. Carrigan, who died while traveiling with her in the West. She had only learned of her mother's death when she reached

A Card from Gen. Badens.

As your report of the discontinuance of my sui against the representative of Gen. Grant contains

To the Editor of The Evenina Word:

Smithkin-Well-really-dear-boy-I-necklace from her to has given her a diam her hair, a pair of a and a diamond ring

TUESDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 13.

SUBSCRIPTION TO THE EVENING EDITION

VOL. 29.....NO. 9.947

ed at the Post-Office at New York as second-class mail matter,

Here's a "High-Water Mark.

The Actual Bona-Fide Number of "Worlds" Printed and Sold Wednesday Nov. 7, 1888, Was 580,205.

Supt. of Mail and Delivery Dept. W. H. NEWMAN.

Foreman Press-Room. Personally appeared before me this 8th day o mber, 1888, J. B. McGuyyin, Superinendent Mail and Delivery Department, and W. H. NEWMAN, Foreman Press-Room of THE WORLD, who, being sworn, do depose and say that the foregoing statement is true and correct. JOHN D. AUSTIN.

Commissioner of Deeds.

A Record Never Before Achieved by an American Newspaper.

AN EXTRAORDINARY RECORD. To the Editor of The Evening World :

I see that several of the papers are "blowing about their circulation record during election But THE EVENING WORLD MAYS DEVET word. Are you ashamed to show your figures ?

Ashamed of our figures? Well, hardly, Our modesty has overcome us, that's all,

But now that the point is made, we may remark that the daily average circulation of THE EVENTRO WORLD last week was 155,600. The high-water mark of the week and indeed the high-water mark of THE EVENING WORLD's record was 280,120, our bone fide circulation for Nov. 7th.

This is the record of a yearling, and it looms up as extraordinary beyond all precedent in the history of journalism.

THE LONDON INCAPABLES.

Sir CHARLES WARREN, the incapable Chief of the London police, has resigned. This is good, as far as it goes. But it will take years to make the London force worth anything. however capable may be his successor. . A witness at the inquest on the last White chapel victim testified that she saw a short stout man, with a red mustache and blotchy face, go into the woman's room with her on the night of the murder. So the police are arresting all the short. men with red mustaches and a liberal supply of pimples, to be found in London. A dozen such arrests have been made without the slightest warrant. It does not seem to have occurred to the sleepyhead d officers that if the witness correctly described the murderer he would readily have rid himself of his distinguishing mustache, even supposing it not to have been a false one, adopted for disguise.

THE OUTLOOK FOR REFORM.

Mayor GRANT will have the opportunity during his term of office to pretty well reorganize the entire city government. His management of the Sheriff's office is a fair indication that he will exercise this power on business principles and in the public inter-

The offices most objectionably conducted at the present time are the Public Works Department, the Chamberlain's Bureau, the Commissioner of Juror's office, the City Record office and the offices of Commissioners of Accounts. The Health Department and the Street-Cleaning Department both need overhauling.

The term of the Commissioner of Public Works expires on May 1, 1889. But the probability is that Gen. Newton, who has been a mere figurehead and has been deceived by his subordinates, will retire on Jan. 1, so that the important department now so scandalously mismanaged by D. Lowber Smith may be purified as soon as Mayor-elect GRANT assumes office.

The City Record Supervisor is appointed by the Mayor, Corporation Counsel and Commissioner of Public Works. Supervisor Costigan will be removed as speedily as Mayor GRANT can accomplish that desirable

The Commissioners of Accounts, whose business has heretofore been the whitewashing of delinquent public officers, will doubtless be removed on the 2d day of January.

The Chamberlain willfretire next May, if not sooner removed for cause. The Comioner of Jurors holds beyond Mayor GRANT's term, but will probably be hauled over the coals as soon as the new city goverument is inaugurated.

It is expected that the municipal departments will be pretty effectually purified and reformed within the first six months of Mayor GRANT'S term.

LAW AND JUSTICE.

The United States Supreme Court has decided against the application of ex-Alderman JARREN, the Broadway boodler, for release from Sing Sing. The ground of the appeal was that the Penal Code was an ex post facto law in this case, and that JAMENE ought to have been sentenced under the Consolidation with law. But mangre the difference in the legal points in these boodle cases, is it not s little inconsistent to find some of the convicted men released on appeal and others kept tightly in jail? If one boodler is in Sing Sing, why should they not all be there If one is free, why should not all be free? Do not these cases lead to the belief that law is one thing and justice another and s wholly different thing?

BACKING OUT OF A BET.

We sympathize with Miss May VOIGHT, of Minneapolis. When she made an election wager with John Conlow, a real-estate dealer of that city, she gave him very heavy odds. If Harrison was elected she was to bestow her hand upon Jonn in marriage. He agreed to make her his wife immediately after the result was ascertained, provided CLEVELAND was defeated. Now John wants to back out of the wager, because he is keeping company with another girl.

This is all very well for Jonn, but it is unjust to May. If Jonn's affections were pre-engaged he had no right to make the bet. He invited it himself. "He did so much bluffing around the block," May says, "that some one had to call him, and I did."

As we have said, May has our sympathies At the same time she must remember that the law does not recognize a bet and she cannot enforce the payment. But if John's flancée has any pluck and self-respect, she will refuse to have anything more to do with him, after his breach of honor with May.

Gen. ROGER A. PRYOR will try the Sugar Trust case before Judge BARRETT to-morrow unless a postponement takes place. The Attorney-General appears on the part of the State. To Gen. Payon is due the credit of forcing this Trust into the courts. It is an earnest of the efficient work he would do if he should be called to the Corporation Coun-

What does Mayor HEWITT think of the simplicity and honesty of a District-Attorney who is called upon to pay about $17,000 to the heirs of an estate for money he received as trustee seven years ago and never accounted for ?

There is to be a Republican post-election dinner at Delmonicos, as in 1880. The blunder of the boast about the efficacy of soap" is not likely to be repeated this year.

OUR AUTOGRAPH COLLECTION.

Hlla 2 B. CLAY.

WORLDLINGS.

Mrs. Albert H. Moore, a noted Philadelphia so ciety leader, is the possessor of diamonds valued at $50,000, and has a handsome collection of fine The tea used at her house is especially imchins. ported for her from China at a cost of $4 a pound. The Lehigh Valley Railroad now has twelve rains equipped with telegraphic instruments for transmitting messages along the road while the rains are in motion. The system has been used with particular success by the wrecking trains on

The Republicans of Abrams, Wis., regard it as in omen that on the day after election two large bald eagles came swooping down from the north and circled around their Harrison pole. The birds of victory remained hovering about the pole for everal minutes and then sailed majestically away.

Miss Kitty Wilkins, who is known as the " Horse range on the Bruneau River, fifty miles from Boise part of her time on the range and is almost constantly in the saddle.

FERRY PASSENGERS SCARED.

The Alaska Smaahes Into a Lighter Near

the Roosevelt Street Silp. While the ferry boat Alaska was going down the river to the alip at the foot of Roosevelt street at 6.30 this morning the steam lighter Cement Rock, laden with shingles, came ploughing

The pilot of the ferryboat blew two whistles for the lighter to give the ferryboat the right of way. The pilof of the lighter answered with one whistle,

The pilovof the lighter answered with one whistle, which means "all right," but instead of acting on the ferryboat's warning, headed right for the latter, and a collision resulted.

The lighter was badly damaged, having its bow stove in. Had the lighter been struck a little lower down, it would have foundered.

The ferryboat was crowded with passengers and there was great excitement on board, all the people crowding to one side of the boat. The ferryboat however, suffered no damage, and made a once for her slip.

The lighter floated to the nearest pier, where her cargo was unloaded, and then proceeded to the dry dock for repairs.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Nov. 18.—Aleazo Howell, of New York, hired a team at Bronson's stables Saturday, the use of which amounted to $9. Howell gave Brouson a check for $38 on the Butchers and Drovers' Bank, New York, saying but ones and brovers base, New York, saying he would eall for the change later. The check was sent through by the First National Bank, of this city, for collection, and returned with the no-illication that it had been stolen and was void.

Capt. Finkerton, of the Bridgeport police, arrested Howell, who said he was not sware the check had been stolen. He received it from his former employer, Mr. Miles, of New York. Howell is locked up.

Among the Hotel Guests. W. H. Wood, of Providence; F. A. Balley, of Denver, and E. O. Cockayre, of Boston, are at the Sturtevant. At the St. James are G. A. Hollister, of Roches-ter: J. D. Morrisey, of Denver, and M. L. Clark, of Louisville.

of Louisville.

At the Fifth Avenue are J. Gardner Curtis and F. W. Gameld, of Boston; A. M. Waddell, of Wilmington, and S. C. Wells, of Le Roy.

Among the Albemarie guests are J. Keith Reid, of Montreal; D. C. Smith, of Lewiston, Pa.; Dr. C. S. Malette and George Von L. Meyer, of Boston.

Senator G. P. Edmunds, of Vermont; J. Pratt, of Chicago; W. R. Peters, of Rochester, and R. Duke, jr., of Charlottesville, Va., are at the Barthold.

Registered at the Gilsey House are C. C. Vande-water, of Kingman, Kan.; D. F. Tyler, of Florida; E. E. Taurston, of Cleveland, O., and C. B. Rice, of Chicago.

At the Grand Hotel are Dr. E. W. Stoddard, of Roonester; S. Danell, of Bristol, Conn.; H. M. Seager, of Philadelphia, and J. C. Hathaway, of Milwaukee, Wis. BProminent at the Hotel Brunswick are A. Winsor Weid, of Boston; I. M. Garnett, of Virginia; F. A. Hondlette, of Newtown, Mass., and T. Jefferson Coolidge, of Massachusetts.

sct, the penalty being only two years imprisonment. No doubt the decision is in accordance THAT CABINET

President-Elect Harrison Should Be Profoundly Grateful.

Some Remarkable Combinations for His Consideration.

Democrats Have Lost the Election, but Still Retain Their Sense of Humor.

A Railroad Cabinet.

To the Editor of The Evening World: In response to the call for the next Cabinet, I should suggest: Secretary of State, John Russell: Secretary of the Treasury, J. Kane: Secretary of War, William Saunders: Secretary of the Navy, H. Alte-myer: Secretary of the Interior, Capt. Benson: Postmaster-General, George Grahan, President-elect Harrison's Cabinet would be then composed of railroad men. ELEVATED ROAD,

Not a Very Bad Cabinet.

To the Editor of The Evening World:
In compliance with your suggestions regarding the future Cabinet I submit the following: Secretary of State, Wm. M. Evarts; Secretary of the Treasury, Warner Miller Secretary of War, J. B. Foraker; Secretary of the Kavy, Gen. Alger; Secretary of the Interior, J. C. New; Postmaster-General, H. V. Pearson; Attorney-General, Joseph H. West One Hundred and Twenty-eighth

Col. Ochiltree for the War Portfolio. Inclosed please find my suggestion for good Cabinet. The reason I can recommend the gentlemen for office is berecommend the gentlemen for olice is because they have had experience: War, Tom Ochiltree, Texas; Interior, John Most, New York; Treasurer, W. W. Dudley. Indiana; Postmaster-General, John J. Reagan, Texas; Attorney-General, :Ben Butler, Massachusetts; Navy, the son of John Roach; Agriculture, Leland Stanford, California.

Foreign Postage Stamp Dealer, 89 Delancey street.

Our Chauseey for the Treasury.

Here is a Cabinet for President Harrison For Secretary of State, Warner Miller, of New York; for Secretary of War, John C. New York; for Secretary of War, John C. Fremont, of California; for Secretary of the Treasury, Chauncey M. Depew, of New York; for Attorney-General, Robert T. Lincoln, of Illinois; for Postmaster-General, Don Cameron, of Pennsylvania; for Secretary of the Navy, W. W. Dudley, of Indiana; for Secretary of the Interior, Wm. P. Frye, of Maine.

Thos. McCargan.

Utica, N. Y., Nov. 10.

Oh! What a Cabinet!

To the Editor of The Evening World :
We won't be mean. Knowing that it will be necessary to help President-elect Harrison out, we make the following suggestions as to some of his appointments: For Secretary of State, Matt Quay; Treasury, Ferdin Ward, a good financier; War, Fire-Alam. Ward, a good mancier; war, Fire-Alam, Foraker: Navy, Tallapoosa Robeson: Inte-rior, Mortgagee and Self-Appointed Register James E. Bedell, Postmaster-General, Burn-This-Letter Jim Blaine: Attorney-General, Wm. W. Dudley, ex-plaintiff against The WORLD.

THE CHOW-CHOW CABINET MAKER.

Here's a Daley Collection

To the Editor of The Evening World:

My straight Cabinet: Secretary of State, P. T. Barnum, able to tame the British lion ; Secretary of the Treasury, Old Hutch, quick at figures; Secretary of War, Gov. Foraker, solid with G. A. R.; Secretary of the Navy, Steve Brodie, surveys the coast before he jumps; Postmaster-General, Father Abram, would mail his letters free, and would there-fore write still more; Secretary of the Inwould mail his letters itee, and would mail his letters itee, and the Interior. Bob Ingersoll, to convert the Indians; Attorney-General, Nellie Bly, she is a terror to evil-doers; Secretary of Agriculture, Rutherford B. Hayes, Thanksgiving Day's agriculture, A. K.

AN OLD NAME FOR PELF.

A Russian Officer's Cool Proposition-150.

000 Roubles Necessary. No one has ever doubted that the climate of Russia is cold. One might be justified in terming it chilly, judging from the following letter, recived at the Bureau of Vital Statistics: ceived at the Bureau of Vital Statistics:

Kowno, Russia, Sept. 28, 1888.

Sin: As I desire to enter into matrimony I take the liberty of applying to your honorable bureau.
I am an Imperial Russian cavalry officer of the Dragoons of His Majesty's body guard. Of my future wife and expectations I demand:

1. That she is not to be over twenty-five years.

'$2. A capital of 150,000 roubles, spot cash.

'$3. That she shall speak the German and Rus-

"On my part I offer her one of the oldest titles Russia and will introduce her to the best society n Russia. Respectfully.
"Carl. von Jungenssen, Kowno, Russia.
"Staff of the Eighth Regiment, Body Guard of lis Imperial Majesty."

There was a notable gathering of society people at the Brooklyn Lee Avenue Academy last evening o witness the debut of Mrs. Berlan-Globs in the difficult rôle of the wife in the society drama of that name. Mrs. Globs succeeded Miss Georgia Cayvan.

Among those who greeted and apprauded the actress were Baron and Baroness de Wardener, Mrs. Woodbridge Paelps, Miss Eisse De Wolfe and Mrs. Vilas, George Law, William Budd, Horace Frye, Mrs. Meagher, Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Seward Coe and the Misses Coe, Mrs. Saportas, Miss Marbury, Mies Dodge, Stephen H. Olin, Judge Stanton and Editor Styant, of the Brooking Times.

Mrs. Gibba's wardrobe was antirely new and very elegant. In the balliroom scone she wore a white gold iress, with a train of gold brooade.

The Coral offerings to the actress were numerous and costly, consisting of standards of roses, white and red, and a mammoth based of rare pink roses.

A Horse in the Fire. Fire broke out at 5 o'clock this morning in the stables, 549 West Forty-third street, and extended several erroneous statements, doubtless based on misrepresentation, I beg you will do me the misrepresentation. I beg you will do me the justice to publish the following: I have not receded one step from the stand I took at the outset. I never claimed the authorship or joint authorship of clea. Grant's boak. No words to that effect have been written or spoken by me. Consequently I have never withdrawn them. On the other hand, I have constantly repeated the statement I made to Ges. Grant himself. May 4, 1885, namely: "I have no desire, intention or right to claim the authorship of your book. The composition is entirely your own. What assistance I have been able to render has been in suggestion, revision or vertication." Tals I repeated before the suit began; this is every word I gave at the close. o Nos. 547 and 551, on either side of the stable, all me-story frame buildings owned by Henry Wright, wood-yard proprietor. One horse was badiy surned. Total damage to stock, $500; to build New Plan of Accident Insurance.

New Plan of Accident Insurance.

The Ten Persium Accident Insurance, of the Travelers's Insurance Co., 140 Broadway, affords accident insurance to age 7c at an actual cost of absolutely nothing beyond the interest on the remiums; the policy granting, in addition to the regular accident insurance, the return of all premiums paid in event of death from any came after three years, or upon the insured's attaining the age of 70. Thus if the insured dies a natural death after three years his beneficiaries receive the amount of all the premiums he has paid. If he is all the terms of the policy, his beneficiaries receive the amount of all the premium but also in addition the amount of the premiums paid. If the insured lives to age 70, he receives back, as an endowment, all the premiums he has paid on the policy and the contract ceases. The policy contains all the liberal promises recently introduced regarding travel, occupation, the loss of limbs, eyes, &c. No medical examination is required. Send age and statement of cest will be furnished.

Football Notes. The Manhattan Athletic Club football team play the Yale College freshmen at the grounds, Nov. 17,

SHE WHO IS TO BE MES, CHAMBERLAIN. TO SWINDLE WORKINGMEN.

Miss Mary Endicott, of Salem, and Her HOW A CALIFORNIAN SOUGHT TO PUT THE EVENING WORLD to-day presents a picture of Miss Mary Endicott, daughter of William E. MONEY IN HIS PURSE. Endicott, Secretary of War.
On Thursday she will be united in marriage with for Luberers to Work Ranches, Railroads, Vineyards and Farms in the Golden State-L. Grever Reed Wanted $6.45 in Advance, and

PEPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—A man calling himself L. Grover Reed was arrested late last night at Baldwin Hotel by a police office acting under the instructions of Capt. Lees, Chief of Detective lie is charged with a premeditated attempt to swindle workingmen, having flooded the East with the following circular:

"TEN THOUSAND COLORED LABORERS WANTED
ON THE PACIFIC SLOPE.

Through Excursion to California for $6.45;
Children Under Fifteen Free.

"Since the law excluding the Chinese from this country has been passed laborers of all classes are in great demanu in California. Large ranches, vineyards, farms, railroads and other industries are now suffering for laborers.

"Good wages and permanent homes.
"We have secured from fruit growers, ranchmen and capitalists of this State, who are in great need of white and colored laborers, a fand to partly defray expenses of these excursions, and to guarantee their good faith and employment for all who will come at once.

all who will come at once.

"We have also contracted with railroad lines for a series of through excursions, equipped with comfortable emigrant sleeping cars, which will be run from all principal points in Georgia, Alabama, Missivalppi, Louisiana, Arkaneas, Texas and Tenneasec.

··· Various industries are suffering, and we must have laborers at once.

'We exact the above amount from you in advance, as a yuarantee that you will come, and to enable us to know just how many we can count

"Due notice will be given of the dates of de-parture of these excusions to those who have re-mitted the above amount—which must be for-warded promptly—accompanied; y your full name and address, upon receipt of which we will send you a certificate of transportation watch will en-title you to passage on any of these excursions. "All arrangements have been made and the move will be started at once.
"Those who would like permanent employment and good homes in the greatest country in the world will certainly avail themselves of this grand opportunity.

opportunity.

"Address all communications to the Canfornia Land and Labor Company, San Francisco, Cal.

"Send money by post-office order, registered letter or postal note.

"Snow this to your friends."

descendant of John Endloott, the first Colonial Governor of Massachusetts, and he has in his possession the famous sword with which Governor Endloot cut the cross from the King's colors March 4, 1885. Her great-grandfatter, Jacob Crowninshield, was Secretary of the Navy during President Jefferson's administration. Her mother is the daughter of George Peabody, of Salem, the well-known merchant, philanthropist and poet, Through both her paternal and maternal ancestry Miss Endicott is descended from the same Puritan families from which came the illustrious hero of the Revolution, Gen. Israel Putnam.

The wedding will take place in St. John's Episcopal Church, Washington, D. C., next Thursday, and will be a very quiet sfiair. The ceremony will be performed by Kev. William A. Leonard, D. D., rector of St. John's Church. The invited guests will be limited, and will include the President and Mrs. Cleviand, the members of the Cabinet and their wives, the members of the British Legation and their wives, Miss Clara Payson, of this city, a cousin of the bride; Mrs. Knevitt Sears and daughter, Mrs. William P. Mason. of Boston; Mrs. George Dexter, of Longwood, Mass., and a few others. After being locked up in the city prison L. Grover talker, said he was working for one Seynor and knew nothing of the company which issued the circular.

The whole scheme is a self-evident fraud, for there is no rathroad company which will convey there is no ratiroad company which will convey passengers across the Continent for anything ap-prosching the amount mentioned in the circular of this mystical company.

"WHAT WILL YOU DRINK?"

The Question that Usually Meets Prompt and Hearty Response. "What'll you drink?"

It is an oft repeated query, and a prompt nd hearty response is seldom known to fail. But what will you drink?

gray bonnet trimmed with gray ribbon and gray wing.

At the close of the wedding a quiet reception will follow, and then Mr. and Mrs. Chamberiain start on a wedding tour of seven days' duration. The honeymoon over, they will then return to Washington, where they will spend a few days with the bride's parents, and then will sail for their nome in the Princess Garden, London.

Miss Endicott's trousseau is being made in Paris by Worth, and includes seven very costly dresses, when finished they will be sent direct to her new home in London. She has had two or three dresses made in New York.

Miss Endicott has already received many valuable presents, including a diamond and sapphire necklace from her uncle in London. Sir Joseph has given her a diamond and sapphire crescent for her hair, a pair of diamond and sapphire crescent for her hair, a pair of diamond and sapphire bracelets and a diamond ring.

Her talter has given her a diamond or recent. In a recent trial of a lawsuit in which liquor dealer was a party, a point at issue was the ownership of a peculiar book of recipes. It was held by a discharged barkeeper and was considered of sufficient value to be worth contending for, and the proprietor of a Brooklyn saloon claimed it.

It. was a primitive sort of "Bartender's Guide; or, How to Mix Drinks of the Present Style," and its contents offer some startling information for those who dote on their brandy and sugar, their fine old Kentucky bourbon and applejack.

their brandy and sugar, their fine old Kentucky bourbon and applejack.

With a transcript of some of the formulæ, an Evenno World reporter called upon President B. T. Kearns, of the Liquor Dealers' Association, to ask for information, but Mr. Kearns confessed that his knowledge of distilling and blending liquors was quite inadequate to the case in hand, although it was well-known that many of the keepers of low-class liquor resorts did "blend" their own liquors, which in their case meant invariably an adulteration of the goods.

In every case enough is used of the goods which the adulterator intends to imitate, to flavor the concection, the balance being which the adulterator intends to imitate, to flavor the concoction, the balance being usually made up of water and liquor, or spirits of a cheaper grade. For instance, when young Tough called for "the best brandy in the bar" at Sowerly's, this morning, he got a beverage made up of twelve parts pure brandy of a fair grade, 113 proof, three parts water and seven of spirits. A little prune juice added pungency to the decoction and it was given a little life by the aid of bead oil.

The lining to Tough's stomach would be with a State did not require his services at Black.

well's Island just enough to stop the work of his brandy before the armor is completed, In his search for a place where liquors are

In his scarch for a piace where liquors are blended on the premises, the reporter ran upon a saloon in First avenue, and in the cellar was a vat about as large as a washtub, and in this he saw several kinds of 'first class' liquors made in the afternoon.

Brandy sold at the bar on the floor above was made up of six parts pure brandy, 113 proof; fourteen parts spirits one and one was made up of six parts pure brandy, 113 proof; fourteen parts spirits, one and one-half parts water, prune juice and bead oil.

Seven gallons of sour mash whiskey, brand unknown; seven gallons of croton water, one-fourth gallon of prune juice and twenty gallons of spirits, with a little bead oil, were mingled in the tub, and the result was labelled "Bourbon,"

Applejack, that famous Jersey beverage which doth cheer and tangle merrily—the pure distillation of the juice of the apple—was the third dope which was made in the vat. It took one gallon of pure apple brandy, three and a half gallons of spirits and a half gallon of water, and if the stuff was not tempting to an epicure, it at least had the [From the Cartoon.]
Jonesby-Say, Smithkin, let me have $10, will Jonesby-Oh! Yes, I know. Your wife's been sick and you've had big doctor's bills to pay and bigh rents, and you've got payments to make and all that, but I let you have $10 tast Summer, and gallon of water, and if the stuff was not tempting to an epicure, it at least had the power of bewildering the imbiber. A forty-eight-gallon barrel of kimmel, that favorite German tonic, was turned out in a jiffy. Twenty-six gallons of spirits, eighteen of water, four gallons sugar syrup and two ounces of kimmel oil were mixed in its man-nfacture, though why so much of the latter ingredient was used was not explained. [From the Curtoon,] Sister Lucy—Here, boys, are some lovely fiannel figredient was used was not explained.

Five gallons of California brandy, ten gallons of raism brandy, three gallons of water and a half gallon of prune juice and bead oil were mixed and drawn into cask labelled The funeral of Mrs. Helen Maria Hoyt, mother of Miss Mary Irene Hoyt, will take place from the "Cognac."

A one-eighth cask of imported gin was obtained without the expense of a customs stamp by the judicious admixture of ten gal.

stamp by the judicious admixture of ten gallons of pure gin, three gallons of rye malt gin and water enough to fill the cask.

If any further proof were wanted of the common root of the Scottish and Irish races, it might have been found in the recipe followed in making fine old Irish whiskey: For five gallons, one and a half pure Scotch whiskey, one-half pure Clenora rye and three gallons of spirits, well mixed.

And the proprietor of the establishment affirmed, as he followed the reporter up the cellar stairs, that these "blended" drinks were less harmful than the genuine article, because there was always an addition of water cause there was always an addition of water to them before they are retailed. He concluded his remark as he dropped the trap down over the cellarway with "What'll you drink?"

Sixty-three Fishermen Lost This Year, GLOUCESTER, Mass., Nov. 18. -The number of the close.
I was offered first of all $1,500 by Col. Grant in ressels halling from this port which have been los I was offered first of all $1.500 by Col. Grant in writing, then $5.000 by Mr. Conkling—both before the sait was brought: next $7.500 by Mr. Conking, then $8,000, then $10,000, then $6,750, and on Cot. $1 I was paid $11,254, being the entire amount stipplated by Gen. Grant, with interest, and which has never been offered or admitted by Col. Grant. Had this not been paid the case would have been tried this week. Yours respectfully, Jamaios, L. L., Nov. 12. ADAM BADMAU. during the year is fourteen, one more than during the previous year. They were valued at $60,000 and were insured for $54,127. The total loss of life was sixty-three, so far as there is any record, Not more than bair a dozen of the mea were married, leaving about sixteen children fatheriess.

Summary Love-Making truck twice in the face on Fourteenth street las night by Frank Lewis, because she would not live with him. At the Easex Market Court this morn-ing Lewis was sent up for six months. THE GIRLS APPRECIATE IT.

An Americation Which Does Them Practical Good.

Among the most practical and beneficis organizations in this city, that lately moorporated under the name of the Manhatta Working Girls' Association, especially comnends itself to philanthropical people, and, as shown by facts and figures, has already produced excellent results.

It is non-sectarian and comprises girls of a half-dozen nationalities. The occupations represented include cashiers, saleswomen, bookkeepers, stock-keepers, cash-girls, suspender-makers, silk-workers, ton-makers, collar-makers, shirt-makers, silk mitt makers, dressmakers, milliners, book-folders and binders, playingcard makers, box-makers, braid-makers, sample card makers, artificial flower-makers, feather-workers, passementeric-makers, ste-nographers, typewriters, confectioners and domestics.

domestics.
This organization was first started as the Working Girls' Society on July 15, 1887, at 440 East Fifty-seventh street, in the building occupied by the Madison Avenue Reformed Church

Church.

The Rev. A. E. Kithedge, the well-known Presbyterian minister, was its chief promoter, but he has had able assistants in the work, the principal being Mrs. Isabella C. Davis, the President of the Society.

The object of the organizers was to provide attractive and pleasant rooms where working

The object of the organizers was to provide attractive and pleasant rooms where working girls can spend their evenings, and through courses of instruction, educate and fit themselves for future usefulness. The society began with seven members, and Mrs. Davis was appointed President of the working organization, the other officers being selected from among the members.

The rooms are on the second story of the building, and comprise the entire floor, di-The rooms are on the second story of the building, and comprise the entire floor, divided into front and rear parlors, a writing-room and a bath-room. The apartments are large, well lighted and ventilated, and in every way suitable for the purposes of the Society.

Since its inception the interest in the Society has increased and good results are shown in the improvement of its members and the increased number of descrying working cirls increased number of deserving working girls who have joined it. In fact, the applications for membership have been so numerous that the applicants could not be accommodated.

the applicants could not be accommodated.

Mrs. Davis reports that 226 working girls over fourteen years old, applied for membership within the past fifteen months. At present 135 are taking advantage of the course of instructions. From Nov. 1, 1887, to Oct. 25, last, the total attendance was 4,483, or an average of sixteen each night, the rooms being kept open in the evenings only from 8 to 11 o'clock. The initiation fee is 20 cents, monthly dues 10 cents.

to 11 o'clock. The initiation fee is 20 cents, monthly dues 10 cents.

There are classes in dressmaking, millinery, stenography and typewriting, bookkeeping, music and calisthenics, all presided over by competent instructors. A well-stocked library furnishes the members with plenty of good reading matter, and the reading-room contains all the magazines and the daily newspapers. The physical welfare of the girls has been carefully looked after by Dr. Elizabeth S. Brown, who has delivered lectures on physiology and hygiene at frequent periods and furnished medical advice. Entertainments are given in the Winter season, and they are said by the members to be very enjoyable.

enjoyable.
The class work this Fall began Sept. 24, and there are now in operation two in dress-making, two in cooking, one in millinery, one in bookkeeping, one in stenography and typewriting, and a choral class.

All the members join in the calisthenic ex-cises.

The number in each class is as follows: First dressmaking class, 14; second, 8; first and second cooking classes, 16 each; millinery, 16; bookkeeping, 12; stenography, 11; choral, 35; total, 128.

Monday evenings the first classes in cook-

Monday evenings the first classes in cooking and dressmaking meet and calisthenic exercises are taught; Tuesdays, the second dressmaking class, the stenographic and typewriting and bookkeeping classes; Wednesdays, the millinery and second class in cooking; Thursdays, first and third in the month, practical talks by President Davis; second in the month, lectures and Intertainments; fourth, business meeting; Fridays, choral class; Saturdays, reoreation.

Three Vice-Presidents, a Secretary and Tressurer and a Librarian and two assistants have been elected from among the members Tressurer and a Librarian and two assistants have been elected from among the members to aid the President.

The only religious services of the society are held each evening at 9.15 and consist of singing and prayers conducted by Mrs. Davis. The attendance is wholly voluntary.

The revenues of the Society are derived from voluntary contributions among the from voluntary contributions, among the most generous of the donors being Cornelius Vanderbilt, Thomas C. Sloane and Elliott F.

Shepard.

A day nursery has been opened in the same building, called the Bethany, the object of which is the care of infants whose mothers are obliged to go out to work. This nursery has been in existence only a few months, but it is pretty well taxed to the limit of its iacilities.

ies. The Board of Lady Managers has charge o the business of the new institution, and a competent matron and members of the Young Lasties' Guild of the Madison Avenue Re-formed Church care for and amuse the little

NO TIDINGS OF SUZANNE.

Miss Fairweather's Mysterious Disappea

. ance Still Unexplained. Prof Leperrier has as yet failed to secure the slightest clue to the whereabouts of his missing sister-in-law, Miss Suzanne Fairweather, wh disappeared in Columbus, O., on Friday.

The Professor was out when the reporter called at 234 West Forty-Jourth street, but Mrs. Lepenier seemed to think that her sister will turn up. Everything looked cheeriul about the Professor's home, and it was said he was about his duties as

The Vice-President-elect Once Wore British Whiskers.

Imagine the smooth faced Vice-President elect Levi P. Morton, of the campaign banners, with whiskers. Yet he has worn them, regular British mutton chops.

Now that the campaign is over and all the bugaboos have died, he can cultivate them again.

A Broadway picture dealer says that when it was first announced that Mr. Morton had been nominated, all the pictures they had of him was one with those whiskers. Of course they didn't sell and they were put away.

They might perhaps have been used as a scare, but it is too late now.

Let the Flend Beware!

There is no bloodhound wanted. Let THE EVENING WORLD send me. Give me two weeks and I will find the murderer.

J. D. Kindler.

553 West Forty-second street, Nov. 10.

Among the Workers. The Miscellaneous Section is expected to get lown to regular business at its meeting to-night. Organized labor in New England is moving for the eight-hour rule, which many organizations throughout the country desire enforced about May 1, 1889.

1. 1889.
Both the injunction case and that for contempt of court, brought by the Quinn faction of District Assembly 49, have been turned over to referees by the judges.
The ladies of the New York Labor Club had a very enjoyable time last night at their ball in Clarendon Hall. The attendance was large and the arrangements good.

arrangements good.

Knights of Labor in this city believe now that Mr. Powderly will be re-elected General Master Workman of the Order. THE WORLD's correspondent at Indianapolis says Mr. Powderly is the only person mentioned there for the office. arrangements good.

Efforts are being made to organize a National Union of Franc-Makers. A convention for that purpose is to be held at Meriden, Conn., Dec. 2. The basis of representation is three delegates for each organization and two for each, 100 members or majority thereof.

HARRISON.

A SKETCH OF THE PRESIDENT-ELECT.

( Written expressly for, " The Evening World," Ben Harrison was elected Chief Reporter f the Supreme Court of Indiana in 1860, and was engaged in his work of preparing the reports when Fort Sumter was fired upon. He had made many telling speeches in behalf of Abe Lincoln, the Union Republican candidate for President in the campaign of 1860, once crossing swords with the late Thomas A. Hendricks in debate and fairly worsting his older, more experienced and worsting his older, more experienced and better-known opponent.

The assault on Fort Sumter fired Harrison's heart and for a day he fought with himself as to whether his duty was to his country or to his family, for he had two babies at this time. But the tender persuavion of a helpless wife, mother of his children, prevailed and with downcast heart and a shame face, he decided to stay at home.

He plodded away at his work as court reporter, but his heart was with the boys in blue, who were swarming from everywhere in response to their country's call and he said: "Bye-and-by, may be, they will let me go," and in July, 1862, they gave their consent, and he accepted a commission as Colonel.

The Union victory at Pittsburg Landing, April 7, 1862, had resulted in the recovery of the Mississippi to its mouth, and the separation of the trans-Mississippi States of the Confederacy from each other. But this advantage was lost through inaction, and at length Gen. Buell was ordered to move the Army of the Ohio to Chattanooga.

Indiana and Ohio were threatened by Gen. Bragg, who was in force in Kentucky, President Lincoln had made another appeal

Indiana and Ohio were threatened by Gen. Bragg. who was in force in Kentucky. President Lincoln had made another appeal for volunteers and Gov. Oliver P. Morton echoed it, backing the appeal with strong and urgent personal efforts.

The deepest gloom had settled on Indiana and recruits were slow, when Harrison and a friend called upon Gov. Morton. The Governor was much depressed himself, bitterly regarding the lack of interest shown by the Hoosiers.

"Governor," said Harrison; "If I can be of any service I will go."

Gov. Morton grasped his hand and replied, "You can raise a regiment in this very Congressional District. Do it and we will find a commander for it, for it would be too much to ask you to leave the place to which much to ask you to leave the place to which you have just been elected."

Harrison replied that if he made any speeches and asked men to go to the front he proposed to go with them and stay as long as they did.

they did.

He was given a commission as second lieutenant, but when the regiment was complete he was made its colonel. Harrison's Seventieth Regiment Indiana Volunteers, very green, with no knowledge of how to handle their guns, was sent to Bowling Green, Ky., the last outpost of the Federale.

Col. Harrison was sent with his men on an expedition against a body of rebels at Rus-selville. He rode on the tender of a loconotive, the better to observe the topography of the country.

The attack was successful, forty rebels being killed and ten prisoners taken, while only one of Harrison's men was lost.
Six months was consumed by the regiment in guarding the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, hunting guerillas and drilling in Railroad, hunting guerillas and drilling in camp. During these six months the green Harrison became an adept commander and his men proficient in the art of soldiery.

It was not till Jan. 2, 1864, that the brigade was sent to the front. It became the First of the First Division, Eleventh Army Corps, and Col. Harrison was put in command, Gen, Ward taking the Division. Later the Eleventh and Twelfth Corps were consolidated as the Twentieth Corps, with Gen. Ward commanding the First Brigade of the Third Division and Cel. Harrison resuming command of his regiment.

of his regiment.

Gen. Grant took command of the army.
He sent Gen. Sherman down against Joe Johnston's army, 64,000 strong, intrenched at Dalton. The Twentieth Corps was joined at Daton. The Twentiern Corps was joined to the Army of the Tennessee under Fighting Joe Hooker.

Col. Harrison and his men were at Dalton the 7th and 8th of May, 1864, and at the battle of Research to 14th. the 7th and 8th of May, 1804, and at the bat-tle of Resaca the 14th.

Col. Harrison's regiment in the lead of the brigade were obliged to advance on the enemy through a dense woods, down a hill and up another one, on the summit of which the "Rebs" had built their parapets. They hustled through a rain of bullets and large shot and Harrison was the first man over the shot, and Harrison was the first man ove shot, and Harrison was the first man over the parapet.

Then followed a hand-to-hand fight, but the guns were taken and there was a victory for the Union men.

Gen. Ward was wounded in the fight and Col. Harrison was left in command of the brigade. He got a better title from his men. It was "Little Ben," and he holds it yet.

Resaca was Harrison's introductory battle. Resaca was Harrison's introductory battle. Introductory to more battles in a month than his grandfather. William Henry Harrison, or Andrew Jackson fought in their whole lives. Gilgal Church, Kenesaw, Peach Tree Creek, Nashville, and a dozen skirmishes rising almost to the dignity of battles, found Harrison ever in the front. At Peach Tree Creek, when it was suggested that he and his men were tired out and should go to the rear, he replied, "I don't see it! By God, I'm going to the top of that hill with the rest!"

And that day after the battle Joe Hooker said, after congratulating him: "I'll make you a brigadier-general for this fight, Co!. Harrison."

Gen. Hooker wrote a letter to Secretary

Gen. Hooker wrote a letter to Secretary Stanton commending Harrison for promo-

A day or two later Harrison was detailed to return to Indiana and canvass the State for new forces. He completed his work Nov. 2. Then he returned to the front, and defended Then he returned to the front, and defended Nashville under Gen. Thomas. He was afterwards at Savannah, and later at Washington, where he received his commission as brevet brigadier general March 22, 1865, for ability and manifest energy and gallantry in command of the brigade."

Gen. Harrison was mustered out June 8, 1865, having made an enviable record for bravery and forcefulness.

Admires a Fearless Policy.

In the Editor of the Evening World:

I want to say that I can but admire the fearless policy of THE EVENING WORLD in printing letters criticising and often abusing its methods. It is certainly refreshing. But I do not agree with these writers, and I do not believe they are sincere in their criti-cisms. The Evenino World is the brightest, most interesting and most useful paper I ever read. J. A. W.

Roller-Skating Champions. M. J. Bailey, the champion roller-skater of South Brooklyn, won a handsome gold medal at the Park Rink last Saturday night, his competitors in the race being George Anderson, Ed Dogerats, John Dobbin and Charles Donnelly. Mr. Bales has an open challenge to skate any one for a purse of $10 to $100, George Anderson, chanapion of Brooklyn, preferred.

Thousands

Who have been trombled with that disagreeable for from the nose, offensive breath, pain over and between the eyes, ringing and bursting noises in the ears, and other dusagreeable symptoms of ostarrh, have been entirely cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla the best blood-purifying medicine. It expals every saint of impurity from the blood, vitalizes and enriches it, and also improves the general health. If you suffer from onlarth try Hood's Sarsaparilla and be convinced of its merit. Hood's Sarsaparilla is old by all druggests. $1: six tes.

Events of the control of C. I. HOOD's CO. Lovelly, Miss.

CHAPTER III. HIS SERVICE IN THE ARMY AND GALLANTRY AT THE BATTLE OF RESACA.